

Oak Harbor Arts Commission Regular Meeting Minutes

January 12, 2023

Attendees

Therese Kingsbury
JR Russell
Mary Elizabeth Himes
Cynthia Mason
Eric Marshall (ad-hoc)
Brian Jones (City of Oak Harbor staff)
Gideon Cauffman (City of Oak Harbor staff)

Absent

Joanna Hanson
Karla Freund

Motion made by Councilman Marshall, seconded by Commissioner Russell. Motion carried.

Public Comment

Patrick McVay updated the group regarding the Acorn shelter.

Approve October 2022 Meeting Minutes

Motion made by Commissioner Himes, seconded by Councilman Marshall. Motion carried.

Approve December 2022 Meeting Minutes

Motion made by Commissioner Mason, seconded by Councilman Russell. Motion carried.

Patrick McVay Acorn

Mr. McVay discussed the shelter for the Acorn and coloring page for children. Once a refined shelter design is received by City staff, an engineering firm will be sought to assist with the design. The Garry Oak Society is letting the Arts Commission use Gary the Acorn Guy for the brochure.

Kinnenbrew Collection Update

Gideon met with Jim Pierson of Superior Systems who provided an estimate for the cost of repair (excluding transportation, tax, and repainting).

Meditation = $985.00
Temple Blue= $2,500
Gate of Inspiration= $2,500
Three Totems= $1,380

Commissioner Mason mentioned that maintenance should be in the project budget.

Preparation for January 25, 2023 City Council Workshop

Discussion about the upcoming City Council workshop. Brian Smith, Parks and Recreation Director, will be assuming the role of project manager for Gate of Inspiration and Three Totems. Gideon will continue efforts with Meditation and Temple Blue. Steve Schuller is taking over as project manager for 'Angel de la Creatividad.

Meeting Adjourned at 5:40

Respectfully submitted by Gideon Cauffman